REMARKS (Explanation of marginal or unsatisfactory evaluation is desired. Other comments are optional. Continue on separate sheet(s), if needed.)

Alan Shintani's management of the project has been the key to providing a timely quality product at the outstanding level. Their management team was effective in providing recommendations to the government that provided for a superior product then what was specified in the contract at no additional cost. Their philosophy on teaming and cooperation mitigated potential government delays and has kept the project on track to be completed ahead of schedule.
